Karpowership Promotes Women's and Youth Football in Gabon

Owendo, September 13, 2025 – Karpowership, a long-standing energy solutions partner of Gabon, has reaffirmed its commitment to local communities by sponsoring the Altesse Football Center in Owendo with a donation of new sports equipment for the season's reopening.

On September 13, Karpowership delivered equipment for Women's U20 and Men's U17 and U15 teams, underscoring its support for youth and the promotion of women's sports. The new season officially kicked off with a friendship match attended by Karpowership representatives, celebrating the partnership and the renewed energy it brings to the center.

Through this initiative, Karpowership demonstrates its dedication to contributing to the social and sporting development of Gabonese youth. The support provided to the Altesse Center is part of a civic approach aimed at offering better training conditions to young football enthusiasts and strengthening their coaching.

GIVING YOUNG PEOPLE THE COURAGE TO BELIEVE IN THEIR DREAMS

"Our mission is not limited to energy production. It is also to support communities, encourage young people, and give them the means to achieve their dreams. That is why we are proud to support the Altesse Center," said Çağdaş Sevik, Karpowership's vice president of commercial operations.

"Through this initiative, we want to encourage young people to believe in their talents and persevere in their projects, whether in sports or other fields. We also want to remind everyone that every effort counts in building a better future." This initiative reflects Karpowership's continued commitment to supporting sustainable development in Gabon, placing young people and the promotion of sport at the heart of its community actions.

For his part, the head of the Altesse Football Center welcomed the partnership, noting that the donation will directly contribute to improving the center's sports and educational activities for young people, particularly by encouraging girls to get involved in sports.

"ONE WORLD": A COMMITMENT TO THE YOUTH OF OWENDO

Guided by its “One World” vision, Karpowership aims to support local initiatives that contribute to youth development. By providing young people with a healthy and educational environment through sport, the Altesse Football Center aligns with Karpowership’s corporate social responsibility commitment to create a positive and lasting impact in the communities where the company operates. Karpowership remains fully engaged alongside the stakeholders who bring this progress to life every day.
